

JOIN A WINNING TEAM

Are you an experienced physiatrist, with current or future interest in independent medical evaluations (IMEs)?

We are a national IME provider looking for skilled medical professionals. Enjoy a predictable volume of referrals, clinically challenging cases, an administrative team to support your scheduling, a quality assurance team for professional medical reports, as well as flexible office locations and the latest technology to do your work quickly and easily.

WE TAKE CARE OF THE DETAILS

- we schedule your examinations and manage all your documents
- we manage late cancellations and no-shows, for which you are still compensated
- choose between our office space or yours

QUALITY ASSURANCE FOR PROFESSIONAL REPORTING

- we double check your grammar, spelling, punctuation, and formatting
- we review your report to ensure that conclusions are consistent with the evidence and conform to legislative requirements

USE THE LATEST TECHNOLOGY EVERY DAY

- easily upload/download reports, and enjoy online invoicing via our online Assessor Portal
- get medical information compiled electronically with hyperlinks to test results for easy-to-navigate files

WE INVEST IN YOUR EXPERIENCE

- attend regular assessor clinical sessions on challenging topics
- train on how to convey expert opinion in your reports

Send your resume or questions in confidence to Dr. Michael Schweigert, Medical Director at: michael.schweigert@cirahealth.ca Requirements include five years of clinical practice. IME experience is not mandatory.

For over 30 years we have provided medical opinion to Canada's top insurers, as well as corporations, government, and legal professionals.
